Section R333 Requirements in Wildfire Hazard Areas.

- i. Section R333.1 Wildfire Hazards defined. Areas that have wildfire hazard rating of medium or above (as shown on the Mesa County Wildfire Hazard Map).
- ii. Section R333.2 Roof Covering. Roof coverings for new buildings or structures or additions thereto or roof covering utilized for re-roofing, shall be Class A or B, tested in accordance with ASME E108 or UL790 or an approved noncombustible roof covering. For roof coverings where the profile allows a space between the roof covering and roof decking, the space at the eave ends shall be fire stopped to preclude entry of flames or embers or have one layer of 72-pound (32.4 kg) mineral-surfaced, nonperforated cap sheet complying with ASTM D3909 installed over the combustible decking.

- iii. Section R333.3 Roof Valleys. Where provided, valley flashings shall be not less than 0.019-inch (0.44 mm) (No. 26 galvanized sheet gage) corrosion-resistant metal installed over a minimum 36-inch-wide (914 mm) underlayment consisting of one layer of 72-pound (32.4 kg) mineral-surfaced, nonperforated cap sheet complying with ASTM D3909 running the full length of the valley.
- iv. Section R333.4 Underfloor Enclosure. Buildings or structures shall have underfloor areas with habitable space located above enclosed to the ground with exterior walls.

Exception: Complete enclosure shall not be required where the underside of exposed floors and exposed structural columns, beams and supporting walls are protected as required for exterior 1-hour fire-resistance-rated construction, fire-retardant-treated wood or heavy timber construction. Fire-retardant-treated wood shall be labeled for exterior use and meet the requirements of Section 2303.2 of the International Building Code.

- v. Section R333.5 Vents. Where provided, attic ventilation openings, foundation or underfloor vents, or ventilation openings in vertical exterior walls and vents through roofs shall not exceed 144 square inches (0.0929 m²) each. Such vents shall be covered with noncombustible corrosion-resistant mesh with openings not to exceed 1/8 inch (3.2 mm) or shall be designed and approved to prevent flame or ember penetration into the structure.
- vi. Section R333.6 Moved Buildings. Any building or structure moved within or into any Wildfire Hazard Area shall be made to comply with all the requirements for new buildings in the Wildfire Area.
- vii. Section R333.7. Replacement or repairs to buildings or structures in existence prior to the adoption of this code that are replaced or have 25 percent or more replaced in a 12-month period shall meet the requirements of this section for new construction.

- (nn) Chapter 11 (eleven): Chapter 11 (eleven) Energy efficiency is amended by the deletion of this chapter in its entirety, and replace with: “See 2024 International Energy Conservation Code as adopted for energy code requirements.”

6.44.040 Penalties

- (a) Any person, firm or corporation violating any provisions of the CMERSRC shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000.00, or by imprisonment of not more than one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each separate day or any portion thereof, during which any violation of the CMERSRC occurs or continues, shall be deemed to constitute a separate offense and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable as herein provided. Any municipal offense under the CMERSRC shall be deemed one of strict liability.

- (b) The issuing of or granting of a permit or approval of plans and specifications shall not be deemed or construed to be a permit for, or an approval of, any violation of the provisions of the CMERSRC. No permit presuming to give authority to violate or cancel the provisions of the CMERSRC shall be valid, except insofar as the work or use, which it authorized, is lawful.
- (c) The issuance of or granting of a permit or approval of plans shall not prevent the administrative authority from thereafter requiring the correction of errors in said plans and specifications, or from preventing construction operations being carried on thereunder when in violation of the CMERSRC or any other ordinance, or from revoking any certificate of approval when issued in error.

Section 9. Repeal and Reenact Section. Sections 6.08.210 – 6.08.260 are hereby repealed in their entirety and reenacted as follows:

Section 6.08.210 Appeals

- (a) A common appellate procedure and Board of Appeals to hear all appeals arising under the application of this Chapter, except with respect to Articles 6.16, 6.24, and 6.40, is hereby created.
- (b) The Board of Appeals appointed by the Mesa County Board of County Commissioners shall render all decisions and findings in writing to the appellant with a duplicate copy to the Chief Building Official.
- (c) The Board of Appeals shall have jurisdiction to decide any appeals from the Chief Building Official if the decision of the Chief Building Official concerns suitability of alternate material, methods of construction or a reasonable interpretation of this Chapter. The Board of Appeals shall not hear appeals of life safety items, administrative provisions of this Chapter nor shall the Board of Appeals be empowered to waive requirements of this Chapter. The first order of business at any hearing of the Board of Appeals shall be to determine if it has jurisdiction to hear the appeal.
- (d) Any appeal to the Board of Appeals shall be preceded by a written appeal to the Chief Building Official, who shall reply in writing. The decision of the Chief Building Official may be appealed to the Board of Appeals, within ten days from the date of the decision of the Chief Building Official. A Notice of Appeal, together with a copy of the original written appeal and a copy of the Chief Building Official's decision, shall be filed with the Board of Appeals at the time the appeal is requested.

- (e) The Board of Appeals shall meet within thirty (30) days of the written appeal, hear evidence and argument if it deems appropriate, and shall render all decisions and findings in writing to the Chief Building Official with a duplicate copy to the appellant.

Section 6.08.220 – Section 6.08.260 Reserved

Section 10. Conflicts and Permits Previously Issued. All prior resolutions or ordinances or parts thereof in conflict herewith to the extent of such conflicts or inconsistencies are hereby amended; provided, however, this ordinance shall not affect the construction of buildings which permits were issued prior to the effective date of this ordinance and all buildings now under construction pursuant to existing permits shall be constructed in conformance with the Building Codes applicable at the time of issuance of said permit; provided further however, that no construction authorized by an existing permit shall be altered without complying with the newly adopted Building Codes. Nor shall the adoption of this Code prevent the prosecution of violations of any prior Resolution or Ordinance adopting prior Building Codes which occurred prior to the effective date of this Ordinance. Where this Ordinance and the Codes adopted herein by reference are in conflict with other resolutions or ordinance of the Town of Collbran, Colorado, the more restrictive provision shall apply.

Section 11. Town of Collbran Building Code Fee Schedule. Exhibit A, the “Town of Collbran Building Department Fee Schedule”, as cited in this Ordinance, is attached to and adopted with this Ordinance and is incorporated herein by reference.

Section 12. Non-assumption of Duty of Care. The Town of Collbran, its officials, employees and agents thereof shall not be deemed to have assumed a duty of care where none otherwise existed by the performance of a service or an act of assistance for the benefit of any person under this ordinance or the Building Codes enacted herein. The adoption of these Building Codes shall not give rise to a duty of care where none otherwise existed. Enactment of this ordinance shall not constitute a waiver of sovereign immunity by the Town of Collbran, its officials, employees or agents.

Section 13 Safety Clause. The Board of Trustees hereby finds, determines, and declares that this ordinance is necessary and proper for the health, safety, and welfare of the Town and its residents.

Section 14. Severability. If any part, section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining sections of the ordinance. The Board of Trustees hereby declares that it would have passed the ordinance including each part, section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that one or more part, section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase is declared invalid.

Section 15. Codification Amendments. The codifier of the Town Code, is hereby authorized to make such numerical and formatting changes as may be necessary to incorporate the provisions of this Ordinance within the Collbran Town Code.

Section 16. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall become effective on September 1, 2025.

INTRODUCED, READ, AND APPROVED ON FIRST READING THIS this 6th day of May, 2025.
